Section I

Introduction & Description of Delegate Selection Process

A. Introduction

1. Rhode Island has a total of 35 delegates and 2 alternates. (Call I & Appendix B)
2. The delegate selection process is governed by the Charter and Bylaws of the Democratic Party of the United States, the Delegate Selection Rules for the 2020 Democratic National Convention (“Rules”), the Call for the 2020 Democratic National Convention (“Call”), the Regulations of the Rules and Bylaws Committee for the 2020 Democratic National Convention (“Regs.”), the rules of the Democratic Party of Rhode Island, the Rhode Island General Laws, and this Delegate Selection Plan. (Call II.A)
3. Following the Rhode Island Democratic Party Executive Committee’s adoption of this Delegate Selection Plan, the Rhode Island Democratic Party shall submit the Plan for review and approval by the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee (“RBC”). The Rhode Island Democratic Party Chair shall be empowered to make any technical revisions to this document as required by the RBC to correct any omissions and/or deficiencies as found by the RBC to ensure its full compliance with Party Rules. Such corrections shall be made by the Rhode Island Democratic Party Chair and the Plan resubmitted to the RBC within 30 days of receipt of notice of the RBC’s findings. (Reg. 2.5, Reg. 2.6 & Reg. 2.7)
4. Once this Plan has been found in Compliance by the RBC, any amendment to the Plan by the Rhode Island Democratic Party must be submitted to and approved by the RBC before it becomes effective. (Reg. 2.9)

B. Description of Delegate Selection Process

1. Rhode Island will use a proportional representation system based on the results of the Presidential Preference Primary for apportioning delegates to the 2020 Democratic National Convention.
2. The “first determining step” of Rhode Island’s delegate selection process will occur on April 28, 2020, with a Presidential Preference Primary.

C. Voter Participation

1. Participation in Rhode Island’s delegate selection process is open to all voters who wish to participate as Democrats. (Rule 2.A and Rule 2.C.)

- a. Rhode Island voters interested in running for district-level delegate must be registered as a voter at least 30 days prior to the filing deadline. In the case of Election Year 2020, potential delegates would need to register by January 28, 2020 in order to participate. NOTE: this differs from the voter registration deadline which is 30 days prior to the primary date, or March 29, 2020.
 - b. Participation in Rhode Island's delegate selection process is open to all voters who wish to participate as Democrats. Democrats are identified as those registered on the Rhode Island voter registration rolls as Democrats. Unaffiliated voters who wish to vote in the Democratic Presidential Preference Primary may do so in accordance with Rhode Island election laws.
 - i. Unaffiliated registered voters are automatically affiliated with the Democratic Party upon their Democratic Primary vote in accordance with Rhode Island election laws. (Rules 2.A. & Reg. 4.3.A) (R.I.G.L. §17-9.1-23C)
 - c. At no stage of Rhode Island's delegate selection process shall any person be required, directly or indirectly, to pay a cost or fee as a condition for participating. Voluntary contributions to the Party may be made, but under no circumstances shall a contribution be mandatory for participation. (Rule 2.D & Reg. 4.4)
 - d. No person shall participate or vote in the nominating process for the Democratic presidential candidate who also participates in the nominating process of any other party for the corresponding election. (Rule 2.E)
 - e. Votes shall not be taken by secret ballot at any stage of the delegate selection process, including processes leading up to the selection of DNC Members or State Chairs or Vice Chairs, who serve as DNC members by virtue of their office, except that use of such voting by secret ballot may be used in a process that is the first determining stage of the delegate election process and in which all individual voters who wish to participate as Democrats are eligible to do so. (Rule 2.F)
2. The Rhode Island Democratic Party is committed to advancing all efforts to enhance voter and election security. To that end, the Party and its members have submitted legislation and supported administrative rules that are designed to accomplish the following seven goals:
 - a. Maintain secure and accurate state voter registration rolls, so that every eligible American who registers to vote has their personal information protected and secure. Specifically, the Party has routine and regular meetings with the Secretary of State's Elections Division and works collaboratively to share information regarding voter eligibility with all party members; (Rule 2.H.1)

- b. Implement transparent and accurate voter registration list maintenance procedures that comply with federal requirements and ensure that every eligible voter stays on the rolls; (Rule 2.H.2)
 - c. Promote the acquisition, maintenance, and regular replacement of precinct based optical scan voting systems; (Rule 2.H.3)
 - d. Ensure that any direct recording electronic systems in place have a voter verified paper record; (Rule 2.H.4)
 - e. Implement risk limiting post-election audits such as manual audits comparing paper records to electronic records; (Rule 2.H.5)
 - f. Ensure that all voting systems have recognized security measures; (Rule 2.H.6)
 - g. Use accessible and secure voting machines that make it possible for individuals with disabilities to vote securely and privately. All voting machines in Rhode Island are accessible and the absentee voting process is also ADA compliant. The party, through its I'm Able Caucus, works with individuals with disabilities and the Governor's Commission on Disabilities to ensure voters in this constituency group have the ability to cast their votes in the manner of their choosing. (Rule 2.H.7)
3. In accordance with the Democratic Party's requirement to assess and improve participation with respect to presidential preference and the delegate selection process, the Rhode Island Democratic Party is taking steps to establish, with DNC assistance, year-round voter protection programs in 2020 to support educational, administrative, legislative, and litigation-based efforts to protect and expand the vote and advance election fairness and security, including the six goals set forth below. (Rule 2.I and 2.I.1)
- a. Expand access to voting, including no excuse absentee and voting by mail. Currently, under Rhode Island law, voters may cast their ballots by mail. Under Rhode Island law, voters may cast a mail ballot. To do so, a voter must request a mail ballot. Mail ballot applications are available on the Secretary of State's website and at the 39 local boards of canvassers months before the mail ballot deadline. All mail ballot applications must be filled out completely and received by the local board of canvassers no later than 4:00pm on the 21st day before the election. Ballots begin being mailed approximately 4 weeks before the election. Starting on the 20th day before the election and until 4:00pm the day before the election, voters may go to their local board of canvassers and cast an in-person mail ballot. Voters must fill out a mail ballot application at their local board of canvassers and they will vote on the spot. Their ballot will be treated like a mail ballot. It will be placed in an envelope and delivered to the Board of Elections by the local board of canvassers.

- b. Ensure that voting locations are accessible, fairly placed, and adequate in number, and have a sufficient number of voting machines; (Rule 2.I.1.b)
 - c. Speed up the voting process and minimize long lines; (Rule 2.I.1.c)
 - d. Eliminate onerous and discriminatory voter identification requirements; (Rule 2.I.1.d)
 - e. Count and include in the final total ballots from voters who are eligible to vote but cast their ballots in the wrong precinct, for offices for which they are eligible to vote; and (Rule 2.I.1.e)
 - f. Facilitate military and overseas voting. (Rule 2. I.1.f)
 - g. Moreover, the Rhode Island Democratic Party intends to lobby for in person early vote dates and early in-person voting, host a dedicated year-round voter protection hotline, and encourage the expansion of polling locations, particularly in more rural sections of our state.
4. As part of encouraging participation in the delegate selection process by registered voters, the Rhode Island Democratic Party supports all efforts to make voter registration easier, including supporting all of the following, which have been enacted into state law: (Rule 2.I.2)
- a. Voter registration modernization, including online voter registration. While Rhode Island does allow online voter registration, state law currently prohibits same-day voter registration. The State Party has supported legislation to change this and we expect party members in both legislative chambers to introduce this legislation during the next legislative session; (Rule 2.I.2.a)
 - b. Pre-registration of high school students so that they are already registered once they reach voting age; (Rule 2.I.2.b)
 - c. Restoration of voting rights to all people who have served the time for their criminal conviction, without requiring the payment of court fees or fines; (Rule 2.I.2.c);
 - d. During the entirety of the delegate selection process, the Rhode Island Democratic party will support the initiatives described in Section I.C.4a-c by investing resources into broadcasting information related to the affected populations and lobbying for the passage of legislation that would allow the activities described in Section I.C.4.d.

5. To ensure an open and inclusive process and resist attempts at voter suppression and disenfranchisement, the Rhode Island Democratic Party will be convening a bylaws committee to investigate ways to strengthen and Rhode Island Democratic Party rules and advocating for legislation to allow same-day party switching for the Democratic presidential nominating process. (Rule 2.J and Rule 2.J.1)
6. Scheduling of Delegate Selection Meetings

The State Party is responsible for selecting the dates, times and places for all official meetings and all events related to the state's delegate selection process will be scheduled to encourage the participation of all Democrats. All meetings should begin and end at reasonable hours. The scheduling of meetings shall consider any religious observances that could significantly affect participation. (Rule 3.A & Reg. 4.)

- vi. The nomination papers of a qualified candidate for delegate to the Democratic National Convention shall be signed, in the aggregate, by at least one hundred fifty (150) qualified voters from the Congressional District from which said voter seeks to be a delegate. (R.I.G.L. §17-12.1-6)

(Rule 13.E.1)

6. Fair Reflection of Presidential Preference
- a. Presidential Primary - Proportional Representation Plan (Rule 14.A, Rule 14.B & Rule 14.D) The Rhode Island presidential primary election is a "binding" primary. Accordingly, delegate positions shall be allocated so as to fairly reflect the expressed presidential (or uncommitted) preference of the primary voters in each district. The National Convention delegates selected at the district level shall be allocated in proportion to the percentage of the primary vote won in that district by each preference, except that preferences falling below a 15% threshold shall not be awarded any delegates.

 - c. If a presidential candidate has qualified to receive district -level delegates but failed to slate a sufficient number of delegate candidates, these delegates will be chosen by the RI Democratic State Committee at the May 11th State Committee meeting. These delegates will be elected by a caucus of State Committee members from that district, pledged to the candidate receiving the delegates.
 - (1) All persons wishing to be a delegate candidate must file a statement of candidacy form designating the presidential or uncommitted preference and a signed pledge of support form for the presidential candidate the person favors, if any, with the Rhode Island Democratic Party before 4 p.m. on May 1, 2020. (Rule 12.G.) The state chairman shall convey to the presidential candidate or that candidate's authorized representative no later than 4 p.m. on May 3, 2020, a

- a. To ensure that the number of male and female (binary) identifying delegates in the district vary by no more than one within each presidential candidate's delegation, Rhode Island will use a dual system. Since both districts have an odd number of delegates, the first delegate selected for the winning presidential preference must be of the same gender as the advantaged gender in that district. In the case of a gender non-binary individual, they shall not be counted in either the male or female category.

(Call VII.C.1 & Reg. 5.9)
 - b. The presidential preference of each candidate receiving the applicable percentage or more within the delegation shall be multiplied by the total number of standing committee positions allocated to Rhode Island. If the result of such multiplication does not equal 0.455 or above, the presidential preference in question is not entitled to representation on the standing committee. Those preferences securing more than 1.455 but less than 2.455 are entitled to two (2) positions, etc. (Call VII.C.2)
 - c. Where the application of this formula results in the total allocation exceeding the total number of committee positions, the presidential candidate whose original figure of representation is farthest from its eventual rounded-off total shall be denied that one (1) additional position. Where the application of this formula results in the total allocation falling short of the total number of committee positions, the presidential candidate whose original figure of representation is closest to the next rounding level shall be allotted an additional committee position. (Call VII.C.3)

- d. Standing committee positions allocated to a presidential candidate shall be proportionately allocated, to the extent practicable, to each of the three (3) standing committees. - b. The first binary gender position on each standing committee shall be assigned by binary gender as self-identified. For example, the first binary position on the Credentials Committee of the presidential candidate with the most standing committee positions shall be designated for a male, and the next binary position, if one occurs, will be designated for a female, and the remaining binary positions, to the extent they occur, shall be designated in like fashion, alternating between males and females, where applicable. For avoidance of doubt: there is no requirement that positions be assigned to gender non-binaries, but the described alternation of binary genders may not be used to exclude a gender non-binary from consideration for a committee position. Positions for presidential candidates on each committee shall be ranked according to the total number of standing positions allocated to each such candidate. After positions on the Credentials Committee are designated by gender, the designation shall continue with the Platform Committee, then the Rules Committee.

- (1) A separate election shall be conducted for membership on each standing committee.
- (2) The male and female membership of the standing committees shall be as equally divided among the men and women as possible under the state allocation; the variance between men and women in any committee or among the three committees in aggregate shall not exceed one. (Call VII.E.2)
