You have a License/State ID

Updating your License/State ID with your new legal name will automatically update your voter record.

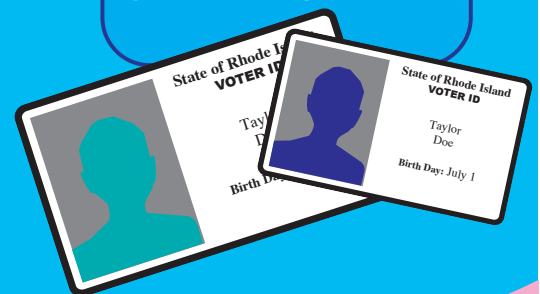

You will receive an acknowledgment notice from your city or town confirming your updates.

You do not have a License/State ID

You must update your voter registration with your legal name.

Get a free Voter ID

You can then get a free Voter ID that matches your voter registration.

You have not legally changed your name

Get a Voter ID that better represents you!

Make an appointment with the Elections Division to get a free Voter ID that aligns with your appearance today.
