Voter Registration Guide

vote.ri.gov

Nellie M. Gorbea
Secretary of State

Dear engaged citizen:

Voting is fundamental to our democracy. Unfortunately, all too often the importance of this single act is ignored. It is imperative to engage everyone who is eligible to vote in the civic process. I commend you for volunteering your time to make sure that your peers are registered and ready to engage as voters.

This guide contains everything you will need to organize a voter registration drive including posters for you to distribute and post around your community. The guide also contains infographics on why voting matters, especially for the issues you care about. From education to taxation, your vote for leaders in local, state, and federal government matters. Every election matters!

The single act of casting a ballot is fundamental and how we make government accountable to the people it serves. I thank you again for being engaged and for working to engage others. Your efforts are truly what make our democracy thrive!

If you have any questions, please call our Elections Division at 401-222-2340 or contact us by email at elections@sos.ri.gov.

Voter Registration Drive Set Up

Planning Your Voter Registration Drive

Before you host your voter registration drive, there are a few things you should do:

- ✓ First, quickly investigate who is running for office in the state and at the local level in your community. This information is easy to find online. Closer to election time, you can view a sample ballot at vote.ri.gov by typing in the address where you are registered to vote.

Registrants might ask you about who is running and what they stand for when they register to vote. Don't forget to investigate candidates from all political parties; voter registration is a nonpartisan effort!

- ✓ Next, consider where you want to host your voter registration drive. Is there a high traffic spot where you can put your table? Do you have a main corridor or outdoor area where people hang out?
- ✓ Finally, think about how long you want your voter registration drive to last. By rotating volunteers, you can host the voter registration drive for a few hours spread out over a few days leading up to the voter registration deadline.

Gathering Materials

Although this guide provides you with many of the materials you need for a successful voter registration drive, you will need a long table, pens, and a few clipboards.

In addition, below are some safety protocols to protect volunteers and attendees from COVID-19.

- Have plenty of hand sanitizer and wipes available!
- Encourage event staffers to wear masks and sit on opposite sides of the table
- Consider asking members of the public to register to vote or update their voter info using their own electronic device

Setting Up Your Voter Registration Booth

Below is how your voter registration booth might look:

Promoting Your Voter Registration Drive

Social media is an easy way to promote your voter registration drive and recruit volunteers. You can create a Facebook event for voter registration drives (visit <https://www.facebook.com/help/210413455658361> to learn how to create and invite friends to a Facebook event).

Share the details of your event on your Instagram stories, Snapchat stories, and on Twitter.

You can also promote your event through community newsletters and calendar listings. Below is a sample Media Advisory you can use to send to your local newspapers and radio stations the week before your event.

Training Volunteers

Recruiting Volunteers

Volunteers are essential for voter registration drives. If enough people do not volunteer after seeing your social media promotions, consider emailing other groups involved with civics or activism to join you in this nonpartisan effort to increase voter registration.

Besides registering voters, you will need volunteers to move and set up your table in the high traffic area you've identified.

Preparing to Train Volunteers

Before training volunteers, here are a few things you should do:

- ✓ Create one or two bullets about elections happening in Rhode Island. For example:

- There are __ candidates running for Governor in Rhode Island.
- __ candidates are running to represent our State Senate District.

- ✓ Go to vote.ri.gov to familiarize yourself with the online voter registration process.
- ✓ Review the paper voter registration form.
- ✓ Read briefly through the FAQs (pgs. 14-15) so you're ready to answer questions from volunteers. They should also have access to the FAQ section of this guide while registering people.
- ✓ Have copies of:
 - voter registration form (pg. 26)
 - sample scripts (pg. 11-12)
 - FAQs (pg. 14-15)

Creating A Shifts Calendar

You will need two or three volunteers at the voter registration booth at all times and may want to set up a shifts calendar so that the event can last a few hours.

Here is a sample shifts calendar:

Time	Name	Duties
11:00am-12:30pm	Juan and Katie	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Meet outside the cafeteria at 11:00am to bring a table outside on the lawn• Set up poster, rack cards, stickers and voter registration forms• Voter registration
12:30pm-2:00pm	Michael and Ayana B.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Voter registration
2:00pm-3:00pm	Maria and Camila	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Voter registration
3:30pm-5:00pm	Lauren and John	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Voter registration• Return table to the cafeteria at 4:45pm• Return materials and forms to Juan outside the cafeteria

Make sure that volunteers either arrive 15 minutes before their shift or at some other designated time and location for a quick lesson on voter registration.

The Training

- 1 Quickly discuss your bullet points about the major elections and why voting matters. Remember, voter registration drives are nonpartisan! What matters is making sure new voters are prepared to vote on Election Day.
- 2 Have all volunteers pull up vote.ri.gov on their phones to follow along as you familiarize them with the voter registration process.
- 3 Walk the volunteers through online voter registration using the sample script (see pg. 11). Point out how it resembles the paper form.
- 4 Go over sample scripts and FAQ sheets. Be sure to role play common scenarios and responses so volunteers are prepared for the actual event!
- 5 Review the shifts calendar and expectations for arrival.

Additional Tips for Volunteers

- 1 Ask volunteers to stay positive and be personable with people who approach the booth.
- 2 Make sure volunteers know that they can wave in a friendly manner at people passing by, but not to harass or bribe anyone into registering to vote.
- 3 Suggest that volunteers not read directly from the sample script when asking people to register, but instead familiarize themselves with the process of voter registration.

Common Responses

"I don't have time."

I understand that you are busy. Now in Rhode Island you can register to vote online in less than 10 minutes. All we need to start is a Rhode Island driver's license or State ID.

"I'm not interested" or "I don't vote."

*I understand. I decided to vote because [insert your reason here].
Some examples of why people vote are:*

- Your vote still matters! State and local elected leaders make important decisions about issues like health care, public safety, and job creation. Check out this infographic about how different levels of government impact your everyday life!
- I care about [insert an issue you care about here], and I want to make sure that the people passing laws in Rhode Island also care about [insert issue]. What issues are important to you?

"I don't know enough about politics."

I have felt that way before, too, but then I realized democracy depends on everyday people being part of the process. I also learned about vote.ri.gov where I was able to preview my sample ballot. After seeing who was running for office, I could Google them to see what they stand for. I definitely felt more prepared heading into Election Day and empowered to make my own decisions.

"I've never voted before, I wouldn't know what to do!"

I totally get it. If you have a minute, check out this cartoon which explains voting in Rhode Island. Here, you can also take this handout which explains the options you have for voting. You can even vote from home in your pajamas by using a mail ballot.

"I can't register to vote. I'm not eligible."

May I ask why not? I have training on registering people to vote and may be able to answer questions.

- Not a citizen: I understand. You can still make a difference by making sure your friends and family members who are eligible are registered and vote this fall.
- Have a felony conviction: Actually, only those currently serving time in prison are not eligible to vote in Rhode Island.
- Not old enough: If you are 16 years old, you can pre-register to vote in Rhode Island.
- Any other response: I suggest calling the Secretary of State's office to see if they can answer that: 401.222.2340

Dos and Don'ts

Do	Don't
Make sure the form is complete and signed	Write additional information on the form
Offer a new form if mistakes are made	Suggest a political party. Voter registration drives are a nonpartisan effort!
Offer to take the form - or - point out the address of the registrants' local board of canvassers	Leave forms unattended.
Return all completed forms to an elections official as quickly as possible. Remember: It takes 30 days from when a registration is submitted for that voter to be officially registered!

FAQs and Resources

Frequently asked questions about voter registration

Q: I thought Rhode Island passed Automated Voter Registration. Aren't I automatically registered then?

A: Maybe! Automated Voter Registration works for people who interact with the DMV. Have you renewed your license or registration since June 2018? If so, let's check vote.ri.gov to make sure your voter information is up to date.

Q: I just moved to Rhode Island, can I still register to vote here?

A: Yes. You need to register to vote at least 30 days prior to the election.

Q: I just moved from my hometown in Rhode Island to my college town in Rhode Island. Can I register to vote in my college town?

A: Yes.

Q: I just moved from my hometown outside Rhode Island to my college town in Rhode Island. Can I register to vote in my college town?

A: Yes.

Q: I just moved from my hometown in Rhode Island to my college town outside Rhode Island. Can I register to vote in my college town?

A: Possibly. Please check with election officials in your new state.

Q: Will changing where I register to vote or registering for the first time affect my financial aid package?

A: Some states require a student to be a resident of their home state in order to get financial aid. It's a good idea to check with your home state if registering to vote in another state would change your residency.

Q: Do I have to register as a Democrat or Republican?

A: No, you can register as an unaffiliated voter.

Q: Is it too late to register to vote?

A: To vote in any election, you must register 30 days before that election.

Q: I was convicted of a felony, but have served my time and am on probation. Can I register to vote?

A: Yes. If you were previously registered to vote in Rhode Island, your voter registration will automatically be restored. If not, we can still register you today.
